Whistleblowing

The company recognizes the importance of whistleblowing and complaints, so we have established a Whistleblowing Policy. This policy serves as a tool to prevent potential damage to our company's assets and reputation. It encourages both our staff and all internal and external stakeholders to report any practices that conflict with or are suspected of violating laws, regulations, ethics, or rights. This helps ensure we conduct business correctly and transparently, treating all stakeholders fairly in line with good corporate governance principles and international standards. All whistleblowing reports and complaints are processed through an independent third party, ensuring complete confidentiality while allowing complainants the choice to submit their reports either anonymously or with their identity disclosed.

Corporate Governance in Actions

'AXTRA CG DAY 2025: Good Governance for Sustainable Growth

CP Aextra reinforced the commitment to corporate governance by hosting "AXTRA CG DAY: Good Governance for Sustainable Growth" on July 16, 2025, at CP AXTRA Head Office. The event underscored the company's dedication to embedding strong governance principles as the cornerstone of its business operations while cultivating a culture of transparency, accountability, and fairness across all stakeholder relationships.

The company continues to foster good governance as part of its organizational DNA, systematically integrating governance principles across all work processes—from head office to its extensive network of stores nationwide. This approach ensures that true sustainability begins from within and extends outward to positively impact the broader community.

The event demonstrated strong commitment from every organizational level, with attendance from CP AXTRA's Board of Directors and executives, led by Mr. Suphachai Chearavanont, Chief Executive Officer of Charoen Pokphand Group and Chairman of CP AXTRA's Board of Directors. Employees from head office and over 2,600 Makro and Lotus's stores nationwide participated both in-person and online. The event also welcomed media representatives and honored guest Ms. Sineenart Chamsri, Senior Vice President of Corporate Sustainability Development at the Stock Exchange of Thailand, reinforcing the shared commitment to governance excellence.

Annual Whistleblowing Training

The Company conducts mandatory annual whistleblowing training for all employees to reinforce our commitment to maintaining the highest standards of ethical conduct and encouraging a speak-up culture in the organization. This comprehensive training ensures that all colleagues understand their rights and responsibilities regarding the reporting of misconduct, illegal activities, or unethical behavior within the organization, while actively encouraging them to voice concerns when they witness wrongdoing. By providing clear guidance training on how to identify potential issues, navigate the reporting process, and understand the protections available to whistleblowers, this training encourage employees to step forward and speak up. We believe that every employee has a vital role in safeguarding our organization's integrity by promptly reporting concerns, no matter how minor they may seem. The annual training ensures compliance with regulatory requirements, and maintaining stakeholder trust.

The collage consists of eight slides from the Annual Whistleblowing Training presentation, arranged in two rows of four. The slides are as follows:
